

TRUTH OR NOT ?

It happened one cold rainy night. I went by car and I was tired. I wanted to go asleep. Suddenly I saw old scary house. I could go sleep there I thought. I arrived to the house. I heard wind blowing and I was afraid but I felt too tired. I came to the house and I knocked on the door. I heard someone screaming and then I heard someone coughing. I heard lot of scary and strange sounds. I wanted to run but doors began to open and I couldn't run. I was like statue. It was dark and I didn't see anyone. I just heard: "Come in!" He or she (I didn't know) wanted to kill me I thought! I ran away and then I went by car. Suddenly someone called: "Come back. It's only TV!" I didn't know if he said truth but I quickly went home and I never came back!!

Dark night

We went to holidays by car. Our family wanted traveling all world. It was funny every day when we driving. We had problem one evening. We stopped on road, because our car was broken. When I opened the door I felt cold wind blowing. It was dark night. My dad gave me a torch. We couldn't run for help, because we were long way ~~from~~<sup>far</sup> town. I heard my parents talking. My dad said: "We must wait and look around!" I was tired. I yawned. We walked long time. One I fell. After while I heard dog barking. I thought we found house. It was big old house. It looked like castle. It was scary. We went near and my dad was knocking on big door. I heard someone coughing, but nobody came to open door. I heard playing music after while. I was afraid and started crying. My mum ~~help~~ me and I heard her silent sing. "AHHHH, AH...." I woke up. ~~and~~ It was only dream. I started laugh, because it was only dream.
